Cybersecurity information sharing is essential to collective defense and strengthening cybersecurity for the Nation. Cybersecurity & Infrastructure Security Agency CISA continues to encourage our stakeholders to voluntarily share information about cyber-related events that could help mitigate current or emerging cybersecurity threats to critical infrastructure.

What you can do:

- OBSERVE the activity
- ACT by taking local steps to mitigate the threat.
- REPORT the event.

Who should share:

- Critical Infrastructure Owners and Operators.
- Federal, State, Local, Territorial, and Tribal Government Partners.

What types of activities should you share with CISA:

- Unauthorized access to your system
- Denial of Service (DOS) attacks that last more than 12 hours
- Malicious code on your systems, including variants if known
- Targeted and repeated scans against services on your systems
- Repeated attempts to gain unauthorized access to your system
- Ransomware against Critical Infrastructure, include variant and ransom details if known.

10 KEY ELEMENTS TO SHARE:

1. Incident date and time
2. Incident Location
3. Type of observed activity
4. Detailed narrative of the event
5. Number of people or systems affected.
6. Company/Organization name
7. Point of Contact if known.
8. Severity of event
9. Critical Infrastructure Sector if known.
10. Anyone else you informed.
